VOYAGES

REMOTELY BEAUTIFUL LANDSCAPES, TRIBAL CULTURES AND MARINE LIFE

This spectacular voyage from Flores Island to the rarely visited Alor archipelago encapsulates the best of Indonesia - featuring some of the country's most magnificent volcanic scenery, fascinating glimpses into traditional tribal life, and a wealth of underwater treasures including reef sharks, a myriad of dolphin species including bottlenose, spinner and Fraser's, vast populations of clownfish, and one of the highest and most colourful concentrations of anemones in the world.

MAUMERE - ALOR/ ALOR - MAUMERE

- 1 DAY 1 Maumere - Pomana
- 2 DAY 2 Pangabatan Island
- 3 DAY 3 Serbete - Adonara
- 4 DAY 4 Kawula
- 5 DAY 5 Buaya Island - Alor
- 6 DAY 6 Pura Island
- 7 DAY 7 Depart from Kalabahi

DAY 1

WHERE WE GO

Babi and Pomana Islands.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Slip into the Rascal way of life before a first snorkel or dive: Pomana has a beautiful shallow reef dropping to deep walls, all with spectacular coral growth; while Babi is home to 'The Crack', a 30m-long reef fissure that is home to a vast array of aquatic life.

WHAT YOU'LL SEE

Bumphead parrotfish, reef sharks, eagle rays, hawksbill turtles and spider crabs.

THE HIGHLIGHT

A sunset beach stroll before a gourmet dinner on board prepared by one of our two private chefs.

TRY YOUR HAND AT

Creating your very own cocktail or mocktail with the help of the Rascal bartender.

DAY 2

WHERE WE GO

Pangabatan Island, with its gin-clear waters and white-sand beaches.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Spend the day relaxing; snorkel or dive the surrounding coral reefs; then set sail for Serbete Island for a chance to spot whales en route.

WHAT YOU'LL SEE

Huge gorgonian sea fans, black coral bushes, whitetip reef sharks, octopus, napoleon wrasse and eagle rays.

THE HIGHLIGHT

Enjoying your very own private beach club complete with pop-up bar, parasols, sun loungers, ice-cold towels and a gourmet picnic lunch.

TRY YOUR HAND AT

Exploring the mangroves by paddleboard or kayak; for the more adventurous, try and break the Rascal record of holding on to the flying mattress as the tender whips you around at full speed.

DAY 3

WHERE WE GO

Serbete and Adonara Islands.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Start the day off Serbete Island, snorkelling and diving its shallow reef plateaus with impressive drop-offs before joining the dozens of reef sharks at the famous 24m-deep 'shark plateau'; continue your voyage to Adonara Island, home to a wide variety of corals, and perfect for more exciting reef, slope and ledge dives.

WHAT YOU'LL SEE

Schools of fusiliers, juvenile harlequin sweetlips, whitetip and grey reef sharks, hawksbill turtles, marbled stingrays, eagle rays and clown triggerfish.

THE HIGHLIGHT

Our signature pop-up dinner under the stars with music (and dancing) afterwards, courtesy of the Rascal crew band.

TRY YOUR HAND AT

Improving your underwater photography skills trying to capture the reef sharks of 'shark plateau'.

DAY 4

WHERE WE GO

The island of Kawula, home to the most dramatic volcanic scenery in the Eastern Lesser Sunda region.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Trek inland on a birdwatching safari to see lesser frigate birds and white-bellied sea eagles; discover the incredible snorkel and dive sites where volcanic vents gush hot and cold water into the ocean, attracting a wealth of marine life.

WHAT YOU'LL SEE

White and blacktip reef sharks, tuna, sea turtles, giant trevallies and schooling barracudas.

THE HIGHLIGHT

Waking up to the incredible views of a smoking volcano and a shoreline fringed with black-sand beaches.

TRY YOUR HAND AT

Capturing the panorama in watercolours; for the more active, become a true Rascal by jumping off the 7m-high roof deck.

DAY 5

WHERE WE GO

North of Alor and Buaya Islands - where the waters of the Sawu and Banda Seas meet.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

On land: visit the village of Takpala and meet the Abui people. Underwater: explore the stunning reefs that make this one of the top snorkel and dive destinations in Indonesia.

WHAT YOU'LL SEE

Below the waves: an extraordinary abundance of marine life which few travellers get to witness in their lifetime. On shore: the fascinating culture of the Abui who live in traditional redwood bamboo houses called Fala Foka.

THE HIGHLIGHT

Experiencing the traditions of the Abui people who call the rains with the moko drum, and who use betel nuts to communicate with their ancestors and to keep away evil spirits.

TRY YOUR HAND AT

Join in the traditional Lego-Lego dance, which symbolises unity, and is performed at ceremonies and to welcome guests.

DAY 6

WHERE WE GO

Buaya (also known as Crocodile Island for its distinctive shape) and Pura Island, which rises 1,015m up to its highest point: the rim of a volcanic cone.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Drift dive or snorkel at the famous sites of 'Red Wall' and 'Clown Valley', home to some of the most biodiverse marine life in the archipelago; free dive with the local children of Pak Yan village on Pura Island.

WHAT YOU'LL SEE

Schools of anthias, pipefish and the spectacular ray-finned rhinopias scorpionfish. With the current in our favour, we'll hopefully encounter Mola Mola and thresher sharks too.

THE HIGHLIGHT

Vast fields of multi-coloured anemones - one of the greatest concentrations in the world - that cover the shallow reefs of 'Clown Valley'.

TRY YOUR HAND AT

Buy a handmade sarong on Buaya Island (famed for its textiles), and wear it like a local to dinner.

DAY 7

WHERE WE GO

Kalabahi Bay, where you'll disembark.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Enjoy a last gourmet al fresco breakfast before saying goodbye to your Rascal family.

WHAT YOU'LL SEE

Another glorious tropical sunrise before a memorable send-off from the Rascal crew.

THE HIGHLIGHT

Planning your next Rascal Voyage - whether it's to Raja Ampat, Wakatobi or the Ring of Fire.

TRY YOUR HAND AT

Taking a group picture on the bow as a memento of your adventure.

EXTEND YOUR VOYAGE

We recommend a minimum of 6 nights to discover the Eastern Lesser Sunda Islands, but they easily can be explored for longer for those seeking more land-based or underwater adventures - or more time to relax in between activities.

+1 NIGHT

Head to Wetar Island, whose rugged mountains are covered with tropical rainforest and whose waters are home to superb snorkel and dive spots; meet "Mawar", a wild male dugong who is famously very friendly and enjoys playing in a sheltered bay off Alor Island.

+2 NIGHTS

Visit Wetar Island and the uninhabited Reong in the so-called 'Forgotten Islands' territory of Indonesia. The mangrove-covered shoreline is perfect for exploration by kayak or stand-up paddleboard; or take a tender tour to go in search of saltwater crocodiles.

+3 NIGHTS

Start your voyage from Komodo Island, where alongside superb snorkelling and diving, you can go in search of the iconic Komodo dragons; en route to Maumere, explore the magnificent reefs off the coast of Paluweh, a smoking volcanic island featuring lava domes and a cone that rises 875m above sea level.
